

The layman Johan Fleming<sup>247</sup> and Birgitta Gunnarsdotter from the diocese of Turku receive dispensation from having contracted, although not having consummated, their marriage, unaware of their relationship in the fourth degree of affinity, Brigitta's first husband being related to Johan in the fourth degree of consanguinity, and to have their offspring considered legitimate.

The layman Magnus Nilsson and his wife<sup>248</sup>, the daughter of Johan Fleming, from the diocese of Turku, receive dispensation from having contracted and consummated their marriage, unaware of their relationship in the fourth degree of consanguinity.

The layman Peter Johansson and Katarina<sup>249</sup> from Mustasaari (Korsholm), in the diocese of Turku, receive dispensation from having contracted and perhaps consummated their marriage, unaware of their relationship in the fourth degree of affinity, since Peter's first wife was related to Katarina in the fourth degree of consanguinity.

The layman Peter "Kerweymis" and Helena of Vartsalo, from the parish of Paimio (Pemar) in the diocese of Turku, receive dispensation from having contracted and consummated their marriage, unaware of their relationship in the fourth degree of affinity, since Helena's first husband was related to Peter in the fourth degree of consanguinity.

The regent Johannes Barcelo granted the petitions.
